

BUGS WIN FIRST GAME WITH EASE

Timely Hit, Coupled With Pair of Errors, Loses for Newport News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Danville, Va., May 20.—Danville took the first game from Newport News with ease today by timely hitting in the fourth inning, coupled with a pair of errors. Both pitchers were effective, but Bussy the more so, the only run scored off his pitching resulting from his only pass. The visitors bunched their errors very inopportunistically in the two innings in which Danville scored. The game was quickly played, but without a fielding feature.

With two out in the fourth, Wallace walked, Clunk rapped a Texas Leaguer over short, and Hudgins rapped to right, the ball taking a bad bound and going for a triple. Bowen's bad throw to catch Hudgins at third got by Bates, and the bases were emptied.

In the fifth, Coates walked and plied and scored on Peaster's second hit. In the sixth Gaston walked, Schrader sacrificed, Gaston walked third, and scored when Bowen juggled Wallace's cap. Clunk hit to Brown, who threw to second, nobody covering the bag, Wallace going to third. Hudgins singled to right, scoring Wallace. The score:

NAME JUNE 12 AS ORPHANS' DAY

Richmond Automobile Club Will Give Youngsters Their Annual Outing.

At the monthly meeting of the Richmond Automobile Club, held last night, June 12 was named as "Orphans' Day," and Dr. H. S. Corey was named chairman of the committee in charge of arrangements. On this day members of the club will take all of the orphans from each of the institutions in the city on an all-day outing. It is an annual custom with the club and has grown exceedingly popular. Every year an automobile will be asked to donate his machine for the day.

One of the important matters brought to the attention of the club was through a letter from C. N. Post, who complained of violations of the speed law on the Midlothian Turnpike. The secretary was ordered to send circular letters to each member of the club deprecating the practice and asking them to use their influence in apprehending the guilty parties.

The Eastern Motor Sales Corporation, through R. B. Allport, announced a $150 subscription to the stock of the Richmond-Washington Highway Corporation, and Mr. Allport called attention to the fact that few of the automobile dealers in Richmond had yet subscribed. The following new members were elected: W. H. Countess, C. W. Myers and Orin B. White. Samuel Cohen, one of the directors of the highway corporation, addressed the members, telling them that they should do their part in helping to build the highway.

LANDGRAF RETURNS HAPPY AT RESULTS

League Affairs All Straightened, and Washington Club on Sound Financial Basis—Players Paid Salaries and Everybody's Happy. Cincinnati Here Thursday.

BY GUS MALBERT.

Wearing a smile which hardly seemed to indicate that he was worried over the reports that the United States League was about to shipwreck, Ernest C. Landgraf returned to Richmond yesterday after the meeting of the magnates in Pittsburgh. Not only is he satisfied with conditions, but he is absolutely certain that the league will prosper now more than ever.

"The one mistake the enemies of the United States League have made," he said, "is in presuming that the men who are franchise holders and who form the organization expected to make millions of dollars the first year. We knew just what we were up against. We knew that every possible obstacle would be placed in our path. We also knew that everybody would be watching us and that we would have to deliver the goods before we could expect support."

"First the assertion was freely made that we couldn't get ballplayers, and that we could never open our season. We proved all of these things untrue by beginning the season with the club we started with. Now come the belated rumors that we can't possibly last. Well, we are prepared to disprove these rumors. Our meeting in Pittsburgh was for the purpose of discussing the weak spots and strengthening them. The Washington club has been a matter of concern, but we now have that organization straightened out and the club is amply financed. Each of the magnates came across, the players' salaries have all been paid, and while the game yesterday was postponed, Reading and Washington will play a double header in Union League Park today."

"It is impossible to keep people from talking. But they can say what they want to, the United States League is a fixture. All through the West the league has been received with open arms. Each of the Western clubs is way ahead of the game. As to the New York club, it is a fixture and is not for sale. If the men owning the franchise want to get rid of it they can find ready purchasers right away in the league. People who are laughing at the troubles of the United States League should remember that the American League did not have the smoothest sailing during its first year of existence. Franchises were changed from town to town, notably in the case of the Kansas City franchise, which was placed in Washington. If any one has any doubt as to the troubles of the American League during its first year, let them ask Charlie Sommers, of Boston, what it cost him. But all that is aside. If we wanted to change the circuit, we have applications for franchises from Kansas City, St. Louis and Buffalo. Baltimore is also waiting an opportunity to get into the league. We are satisfied, however, with the circuit as it stands. If we didn't have troubles we would be afraid and go out looking for them. Organizing a new baseball league, in the face of the greatest opposition, is a daunting task. The people of Richmond may rest assured that they will continue to see baseball throughout the season from the United States League, and the club will be getting stronger and stronger all of the time.

"As to the report that I am after several of the Detroit players, I may say that this is true of every club in the league. They are willing to pay the price, and while it had been the intention of the league to keep hands off of other baseball property, we feel that we have been badly treated and will go after any and everybody we want, and get them if we can. I am in touch with Ty Cobb, and if I can land him will do so. Richmond looks better to me now than ever, and Richmond will get better and better baseball as the season advances."

New York leaves to-night for home to meet the Western clubs. Billy Jordan is wiring all over the country for today's game with the Cubs. This is "Ladies' Day" at Lee Park, and every one of them will be admitted to the gate and grandstand free.

To-morrow there will be no game, the Reds taking a much needed rest prior to meeting John Ryan's Cincinnati outfit. The Pippins are in prime shape now, well up in the thick of the fight, and will give Newham the best battle he has had yet.

Thursday Jack Grim and his Shipbuilders will journey this way to take a fall out of Steve Griffin and his Colts. The Colts are going like a house afire now, and it will take a good club to stop them.

SHOT BY HIS STEPSON.
 [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Abingdon, Va., May 20.—One man lies probably fatally wounded, another slightly wounded and a woman badly hurt as the result of a family quarrel that took place to-day three miles from Abingdon.

H. J. Grubb and his stepson, George W. Grubb, had some trouble over a land transaction, when the young man pulled his pistol and fired five times at his stepfather. Four shots pierced the body of his victim.

George Grubb's wife was hurt and he himself was wounded and taken to the Abingdon Hospital, but is not seriously injured.

of the series at Bland Park by the score of 5 to 1. The Richmond twirler had everything, and while he was hit freely, they always went into some fielder's hands. Castro's home run drive over left centre was the only hit that counted in the score. Verbout was also backed up faultlessly by his team mates, McComas at short, and Mace, behind the bat, doing particularly good work.

Except in the first and last innings Manner was very effective. Griffin hit the ball for a homer in the opening session. A double by Burke and single by Mattis resulted in another run. In the ninth a base on balls to Mattis, singles by Riley and McComas and Timman's error gave Richmond two more runs. The double play by Murphy and Douglas was one of the features. The score:

M'GUIRE'S WINS IN FINAL GAME

McGuire's University School won the prep school championship of Richmond yesterday by defeating John Marshall High School in a thrillingly played game at Broad Street Park 9 to 1. Hulse, for McGuire's, was at all times master of the situation, holding the public school lads well in hand and invulnerable at critical moments. A large crowd of rooters was out to watch the fray, and time and again cheers rang across the field as one team or another pulled off some particularly good play. This was the last game of the season.

RANDOLPH-MACON WINS CLOSE GAME

Williamsburg, Va., May 20.—Randolph-Macon defeated William and Mary in the championship game here this afternoon by the score of 4 to 3. The locals out-hit and made fewer errors than the visitors, but the breaks were with the Yellow Jackets, and they won out. This victory, it is believed, ties up the championship of the Eastern Virginia Intercollegiate Athletic Association between Randolph-Macon and Hampden-Sydney.

Peache's work behind the bat was the feature for the Williamsburgers today, and Marston, in the box, and Tatum, at short, starred for the visitors.
